TOWN OFFICIALS

Will Have to Give Andrew Carnegie Back His Library.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 21.—The Carnegie library here was closed yesterday owing to the lack of funds to support it and it is probable that Mr. Carnegie will be asked to take back the library, which was erected with his gift of $15,000. The public paid for the real estate, and of course, if the library is given back to Carnegie the real estate will go with it and the wealthy ironmaster will be in the position of being offered a town lot as a gift instead of being a donor as he expected to be. What to do with the library has been worrying the town officials more than the lack of literature before the gift was made.

THE FLUCTUATION STILL CONTINUES

More New Cases Than Usual Reported Yesterday.

The Fight is Being Kept Up, However—Last Epidemic Will Ever Have of Yellow Fever.

SOME OF CAIRO'S LATEST ANTICS

Report to 6 p. m. yesterday: New cases, 50. Total, to date, 2,689. Deaths, 6. Total, 351. New foci, 11. Cases under treatment, 327. Cases discharged, 2,011.

The Last Fever Epidemic.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—"The present successful campaign against yellow fever in New Orleans to my mind is sufficient demonstration that we will never again have an epidemic of the disease in the United States," says Judge Davey, representative of the Second Louisiana district, who is here on business. He says the campaign has proven beyond a doubt that mosquitoes are the cause of the infection.

Cairo's Lid May Be Tighter.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 21.—It may become necessary for persons, when asking for permits to enter the city to make affidavits before a justice showing that they have not been in an infected district. Yesterday the city authorities learned that C. A. Braden, had come to Cairo direct from Natchez, Miss., against which both the city and the state are absolutely quarantined. A well known Cairo man a few days ago secured permits for Braden and his wife, giving Fulton, Ky., as their residence. The permits were either mailed to them at Fulton or sent by messenger to Wickliffe.

Both were admitted to the city but when it was learned a few hours later that they had secured the permits by misrepresentation and that they had just come from Natchez, they were placed on a north bound Illinois Central train and sent to St. Louis.

Passengers For Observation.

Quarantine, Staten Island, Sept. 21.—Passengers from the steamer Comas, from New Orleans, were sent to Hoffman Island today for observation. Only one had a high temperature.

More New Cases Reported.

New Orleans, Sept. 21.—Another increase in the number of new cases of yellow fever was reported yesterday, but the fact made no impression upon the health authorities, who regard the situation as definitely under control. The cases came with a rush so that at 1 o'clock thirty-three had been reported, but thereafter until the closing hour the additions were reported slowly and there was not a corresponding increase in deaths.

Namies of prominence were very few among the new cases and entirely absent from the list of deaths. Not all the cases will develop yellow fever at the end of the 36 hours considered necessary to complete diagnosis, but there has been no change yet decided upon of separating the actual cases from those which turn out to be something else.

It has been suggested that a period has arrived when the official list might be confined exclusively to yellow fever, the suspicious cases being separately reported, but the officials believe it more advisable that the official list shall be imperfect to the extent of its containing malaria and typhoid fevers, that suppression of doubtful cases, eliminating the consequent danger of spreading infection in unwatched localities.

Dr. White said today that fluctuation in the number of new cases caused him no concern. It is an incident of the campaign.

PERKINS ON STAND

In the New York Life Investigation Today.

New York, Sept. 21.—George W. Perkins, vice-president of the New York Life, and member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., was on the stand again today in the insurance investigation. He made a long explanation of the company's position on syndicates. He said the company never went into a syndicate of speculation to benefit others, but merely wanted to get participation price in bonds for investigation.

Four Broke Jail.

Wayne, W. Va., Sept. 21.—Four prisoners, all charged with felonies, except one, escaped from jail here last night. It is thought they had outside help.

"KEEP BREAKFAST WARM."

A CONFERENCE

HELD BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT LAST NIGHT.

Several Prominent Statesmen Met at Sagamore Hill, Object Not Disclosed.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 21.—A conference of importance was held last night at Sagamore Hill, the participants being President Roosevelt, Elihu Root, Secretary of State Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Senator from Massachusetts and Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain.

While it is stated a particular subject of great concern to the country was under consideration, the nature of which was not disclosed officially, the opportunity was embraced by the president to discuss with his visitors some matters relating to the foreign relations of America.

This is the first suitable opportunity the president has had to talk with Secretary Root since he assumed his duties as secretary of state. Secretary Root, Senator Lodge and Mr. Choate arrived here together about 5:40.

In response to inquiries, Secretary Root said he expected to go to Washington about the first of October, and until then would not undertake in the full acceptance of the term the duties of his office.

It is not unlikely that among other topics of discussion the recent developments in the conduct of the life insurance companies received an important share of attention at the conference. All three of the visitors will remain as guests of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt until today.

New Tennessee Railroad.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Two new railroad lines were chartered by the secretary of state today, viz.: Ohio and Gulf railroad, capital $300,000, to run from the Tennessee river in Marion county, Tenn., to the Tennessee-Kentucky line, where the Cumberland river crosses said line in Clay county; and the Jackson and Southeastern Railroad company, capital $10,000, to run from Frogmore Yard near Jackson, to the Mobile and Ohio railroad.

FUSION COMPLETE NOW IN NEBRASKA

W. J. Bryan Bids Farewell to Democrats for a Year.

He Commended President Roosevelt For His Stand On Many Questions.

THE PLATFORM WAS ADOPTED.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 21.—The fusion between the democrats and the populists of Nebraska was effected yesterday by the nomination by both state conventions of the following ticket:

Justice Supreme Court—William G. Hastings, Wilbur. Regents of the University—D. C. Cole, Osceola, Louis Lightner, Columbus.

A feature of the democratic gathering was the speech of William J. Bryan, in which he bade his party associates in the state farewell for a year at least, on the eve of his departure for an extended tour of the old world.

Bryan commended President Roosevelt for what he declared to be his advanced stand on principles long advocated by democrats.

On these principles he hoped every democrat would uphold the president. A resolution was adopted denouncing the Rockefeller gift to the University of Nebraska; criticised the regents for accepting it and demanded the return of the gift to the donor.

The platform favors a law giving the interstate commerce commission the power to fix railroad rates.

The anti-pass plank is declared to be the strongest ever adopted by a Nebraska state convention.

The populist platform declares for the initiative and referendum and national ownership and operation of railroads.

BATTLING NELSON

Appears as Champion of Woman in Distress.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Batting Nelson appeared in the arena of the bond and warrant clerk's office yesterday as champion of the Celia Fay, notorious for many things, among others, charge of grand larceny. It was on her behalf in the larceny charge that "Bat" appeared and deposited $500 in cash in his own name for her release.

She is accused of stealing coin and jewels from her companions in hack and automobile rides, and once secured her bail through a deposit by a young attorney.

On sober second thought he surrendered her into the custody again and now the successful pugilist succeeds him. She is the woman about whom "Batting" had his first tussle with Teddy Murphy, "the boy manager." The latter claimed that in order to win Nelson from her he had to fly to Stockton with the purse. Nelson seems enamored of the woman.

Dixon Knocked Out.

Philadelphia, Sept. 21.—Tommy Murphy, of New York, knocked out George Dixon, former featherweight champion, in the second round last night.

ADMIRAL DEWEY

Is Back at His Desk After Three Months.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Admiral Dewey is back at his desk after a three months' vacation at Hot Springs, Va. He will shortly begin arrangements for the annual maneuvers of the North Atlantic fleet in the Caribbean sea, which will be conducted by Rear Admiral Evans.

No Scrap at Salt Lake.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 21.—The JohnWille-Gus Ruhlin fight advertised to take place here next Tuesday night, will be prohibited by the county authorities, notwithstanding Mayor Morris has issued a permit for the fight. County Attorney Christensen stated that the contest as advertised would be a prize fight, and as such would be in violation of the law.

He so notified Sheriff Emery and the latter served notice on the promoters of the fight that arrests would be made if the men came into the ring.

Dr. Palmer Receives Sad news.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 21.—While busy at his official duty, Dr. George Palmer, in charge of Cairo's quarantine force, received the news of the death of his mother, Mrs. John Mays Palmer, which occurred at her home in Carlisle.

CLOTHING TORN BY MOB.

Mr. Blackshire Convicted of Murder Has Close Call.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Gene Blackshire, convicted at the last term of the Calhoun county circuit court of implication in the killing of her husband, for which crime Louis Hendricks and Bud McCrosky are now serving life sentences was brought here last night en route to the penitentiary at Moundsville, to begin here three years' term. A crowd of nearly 1,000 people met her at the depot and in the mad rush to get a glimpse of the woman her clothes were torn to shreds and she and her guard were nearly trampled under foot.

When lodged in jail she fell in a faint and was unconscious for several hours. It develops that since her conviction she has not been confined in jail, but has been allowed to be at liberty. Much indignation is felt at the alleged laxity of the officials. She still declares her innocence.

INCREASE IN DEPOSITS.

Fine Report on the Conditions of Our National Banks.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The controller of the currency reported on the condition of all of the national banks of the United States at the close of business August 25. The marvelous increase in individual deposits is an interesting feature of the report. Since September 6, 1904 approximately a year, the individual deposits have increased from $3,458,216,667.90 to $3,820,681,713.23, which is a gain of $362,464,045.33. The total resources of the national banks have grown in the same time from $6,975,086,504.05 to $7,472,350,878.64, a gain of $497,292,374.59.

A romantic reconciliation was effected some weeks ago and the old love was renewed, culminating in the second wedding last night, with their little four-year-old daughter as a witness to the ceremony.

Suicided While Insane.

Findlay, O., Sept. 21.—Barney Berman, the son of Simon Berman, a clothing merchant, committed suicide by shooting himself in his father's store, where he was taken by an officer after the young man had been adjudged insane. The officer was en route with his charge to the Toledo State hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Johns went to the Berman residence, on Lima street, and enticed the youth to walk with him in order to get him started on the Toledo journey. In the store the boy was allowed to go upstairs to get a handkerchief, as he said. Once out of the officer's sight young Berman fired a bullet through his heart. The mother is nearly frantic with grief.

Society Man Missing.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—Floyd Dinkgrave, a prominent society man, whose hat, vest and coat were found on the center span of Eads bridge, left the following verse in his room: "Strange—but the heart from trouble shrinks."

When skies are black and grim— That when a man is down he thinks That it is all up with him."

Dinkgrave was last seen at 12:30 a. m. Monday, when he left a party of friends with whom he had been playing poker. The game, which was for small stakes, took place in a private residence in the well West End. He was in a cheerful mood when he left. He had about $35, it is thought, with him.

The fight is being kept up, however—Last Epidemic Will Ever Have of Yellow Fever.

SOME OF CAIRO'S LATEST ANTICS

Report to 6 p. m. yesterday: New cases, 50. Total, today, 2,689. Deaths, 6. Total, 351. New foci, 11. Cases under treatment, 327. Cases discharged, 2,011.

The Last Fever Epidemic.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—"The present successful campaign against yellow fever in New Orleans to my mind is sufficient demonstration that we will never again have an epidemic of the disease in the United States," says Judge Davey, representative of the Second Louisiana district, who is here on business. He says the campaign has proven beyond a doubt that mosquitoes are the cause of the infection.

Cairo's Lid May Be Tighter.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 21.—It may become necessary for persons, when asking for permits to enter the city to make affidavits before a justice showing that they have not been in an infected district.

Yesterday the city authorities learned that C. A. Braden, had come to Cairo direct from Natchez, Miss., against which both the city and the state are absolutely quarantined. A well known Cairo man a few days ago secured permits for Braden and his wife, giving Fulton, Ky., as their residence. The permits were either mailed to them at Fulton or sent by messenger to Wickliffe.

Both were admitted to the city but when it was learned a few hours later that they had secured the permits by misrepresentation and that they had just come from Natchez, they were placed on a north bound Illinois Central train and sent to St. Louis.

Passengers For Observation.

Quarantine, Staten Island, Sept. 21.—Passengers from the steamer Comas, from New Orleans, were sent to Hoffman Island today for observation. Only one had a high temperature.

More New Cases Reported.

New Orleans, Sept. 21.—Another increase in the number of new cases of yellow fever was reported yesterday, but the fact made no impression upon the health authorities, who regard the situation as definitely under control. The cases came with a rush so that at 1 o'clock thirty-three had been reported, but thereafter until the closing hour the additions were reported slowly and there was not a corresponding increase in deaths.

Names of prominence were very few among the new cases and entirely absent from the list of deaths. Not all the cases will develop yellow fever at the end of the 36 hours considered necessary to complete diagnosis, but there has been no change yet decided upon of separating the actual cases from those which turn out to be something else.

It has been suggested that a period has arrived when the official list might be confined exclusive to yellow fever, the suspicious cases being separately reported, but the officials believe it more advisable that the official list shall be imperfect to the extent of its containing malaria and typhoid fevers, that suppression of doubtful cases, eliminating the consequent danger of spreading infection in unwatched localities.

Dr. White said today that fluctuation in the number of new cases caused him no concern. It is an incident of the campaign.

PERKINS ON STAND

In the New York Life Investigation Today.

New York, Sept. 21.—George W. Perkins, vice-president of the New York Life, and member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., was on the stand again today in the insurance investigation. He made a long explanation of the company's position on syndicates. He said the company never went into a syndicate of speculation to benefit others, but merely wanted to get participation price in bonds for investigation.

A CONFERENCE

HELD BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT LAST NIGHT.

Several Prominent Statesmen Met at Sagamore Hill, Object Not Disclosed.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 21.—A conference of importance was held last night at Sagamore Hill, the participants being President Roosevelt, Elihu Root, Secretary of State Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Senator from Massachusetts and Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain.

While it is stated a particular subject of great concern to the country was under consideration, the nature of which was not disclosed officially, the opportunity was embraced by the president to discuss with his visitors some matters relating to the foreign relations of America.

This is the first suitable opportunity the president has had to talk with Secretary Root since he assumed his duties as secretary of state. Secretary Root, Senator Lodge and Mr. Choate arrived here together about 5:40. In response to inquiries, Secretary Root said he expected to go to Washington about the first of October, and until then would not undertake in the full acceptance of the term the duties of his office.

It is not unlikely that among other topics of discussion the recent developments in the conduct of the life insurance companies received an important share of attention at the conference. All three of the visitors will remain as guests of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt until today.

New Tennessee Railroad.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Two new railroad lines were chartered by the secretary of state today, viz.: Ohio and Gulf railroad, capital $300,000, to run from the Tennessee river in Marion county, Tenn., to the Tennessee-Kentucky line, where the Cumberland river crosses said line in Clay county; and the Jackson and Southeastern Railroad company, capital $10,000, to run from Frogmore Yard near Jackson, to the Mobile and Ohio railroad.

FUSION COMPLETE NOW IN NEBRASKA

W. J. Bryan Bids Farewell to Democrats for a Year.

He Commended President Roosevelt For His Stand On Many Questions.

THE PLATFORM WAS ADOPTED.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 21.—The fusion between the democrats and the populists of Nebraska was effected yesterday by the nomination by both state conventions of the following ticket:

Justice Supreme Court—William G. Hastings, Wilbur. Regents of the University—D. C. Cole, Osceola, Louis Lightner, Columbus.

A feature of the democratic gathering was the speech of William J. Bryan, in which he bade his party associates in the state farewell for a year at least, on the eve of his departure for an extended tour of the old world.

Bryan commended President Roosevelt for what he declared to be his advanced stand on principles long advocated by democrats.

On these principles he hoped every democrat would uphold the president. A resolution was adopted denouncing the Rockefeller gift to the University of Nebraska; criticised the regents for accepting it and demanded the return of the gift to the donor.

The platform favors a law giving the interstate commerce commission the power to fix railroad rates.

The anti-pass plank is declared to be the strongest ever adopted by a Nebraska state convention.

The populist platform declares for the initiative and referendum and national ownership and operation of railroads.

BATTLING NELSON

Appears as Champion of Woman in Distress.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Batting Nelson appeared in the arena of the bond and warrant clerk's office yesterday as champion of the Celia Fay, notorious for many things, among others, charge of grand larceny. It was on her behalf in the larceny charge that "Bat" appeared and deposited $500 in cash in his own name for her release.

She is accused of stealing coin and jewels from her companions in hack and automobile rides, and once secured her bail through a deposit by a young attorney.

On sober second thought he surrendered her into the custody again and now the successful pugilist succeeds him. She is the woman about whom "Batting" had his first trouble with Teddy Murphy, "the boy manager." The latter claimed that in order to win Nelson from her he had to fly to Stockton with the purse. Nelson seems enamored of the woman.

Dixon Knocked Out.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 21.—The John Wille-Gus Ruhl flight advertised to take place here next Tuesday night, will be prohibited by the county authorities, notwithstanding Mayor Morris has issued a permit for the fight. He so notified Sheriff Emery and the latter served notice on the promoters of the fight that arrests would be made if the men came into the ring.

Dr. Palmer Receives Sad News.

CLOTHING TORN BY MOB.

Mr. Blackshire Convicted of Murder Has Close Call.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Gene Blackshire, convicted at the last term of the Calhoun county circuit court of implication in the killing of her husband, for which crime Louis Hendricks and Bud McCrosky are now serving life sentences was brought here last night en route to the penitentiary at Moundsville, to begin here three years' term. A crowd of nearly 1,000 people met her at the depot and in the mad rush to get a glimpse of the woman her clothes were torn to shreds and she and her guard were nearly trampled under foot.

When lodged in jail she fell in a faint and was unconscious for several hours. It develops that since her conviction she has not been confined in jail, but has been allowed to be at liberty. Much indignation is felt at the alleged laxity of the officials. She still declares her innocence.

INCREASE IN DEPOSITS.

Fine Report on the Conditions of Our National Banks.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The controller of the currency reported on the condition of all of the national banks of the United States at the close of business August 25. The mother is nearly frantic with grief.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—Floyd Dinkgrave, a prominent society man, whose hat, vest and coat were found on the center span of Eads bridge, left the following verse in his room: "Strange—but the heart from trouble shrinks.

When skies are black and grim—That when a man is down he thinks That it is all up with him."

Dinkgrave was last seen at 12:30 a. m. Monday, when he left a party of friends with whom he had been playing poker. The game, which was for small stakes, took place in a private residence in the well West End. He was in a cheerful mood when he left. He had about $35, it is thought, with him.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 21.—The Carnegie library here was closed yesterday owing to the lack of funds to support it and it is probable that Mr. Carnegie will be asked to take back the library, which was erected with his gift of $15,000. The public paid for the real estate, and of course, if the library is given back to Carnegie the real estate will go with it and the wealthy ironmaster will be in the position of being offered a town lot as a gift instead of being a donor as he expected to be. What to do with the library has been worrying the town officials more than the lack of literature before the gift was made.

ABSOLUTE MONARCHY.

Status of the Congo Independent State to Be Decided.

FUSION COMPLETE NOW IN NEBRASKA

W. J. Bryan Bids Farewell to Democrats for a Year.

He Commended President Roosevelt For His Stand On Many Questions.

THE PLATFORM WAS ADOPTED.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 21.—The fusion between the democrats and the populists of Nebraska was effected yesterday by the nomination by both state conventions of the following ticket:

Justice Supreme Court—William G. Hastings, Wilbur. Regents of the University—D. C. Cole, Osceola, Louis Lightner, Columbus.

A feature of the democratic gathering was the speech of William J. Bryan, in which he bade his party associates in the state farewell for a year at least, on the eve of his departure for an extended tour of the old world.

Bryan commended President Roosevelt for what he declared to be his advanced stand on principles long advocated by democrats.

On these principles he hoped every democrat would uphold the president. A resolution was adopted denouncing the Rockefeller gift to the University of Nebraska; criticised the regents for accepting it and demanded the return of the gift to the donor.

The platform favors a law giving the interstate commerce commission the power to fix railroad rates.

The anti-trust plank is declared to be the strongest ever adopted by a Nebraska state convention.

The populist platform declares for the initiative and referendum and national ownership and operation of railroads.

BATTLING NELSON

Appears as Champion of Woman in Distress.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Batling Nelson appeared in the arena of the bond and warrant clerk's office yesterday as champion of the Celia Fay, notorious for many things, among others, charge of grand larceny. It was on her behalf in the larceny charge that "Bat" appeared and deposited $500 in cash in his own name for her release.

She is accused of stealing coin and jewels from her companions in hack and automobile rides, and once secured her bail through a deposit by a young attorney.

On sober second thought he surrendered her into the custody again and now the successful pugilist succeeds him. She is the woman about whom "Batling" had his first trouble with Teddy Murphy, "the boy manager." The latter claimed that in order to win Nelson from her he had to fly to Stockton with the purse. Nelson seems enamored of the woman.

Dixon Knocked Out.

Philadelphia, Sept. 21.—Tommy Murphy, of New York, knocked out George Dixon, former featherweight champion, in the second round last night.

ADMIRAL DEWEY

Is Back at His Desk After Three Months.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Admiral Dewey is back at his desk after a three months' vacation at Hot Springs, Va. He will shortly begin arrangements for the annual maneuvers of the North Atlantic fleet in the Caribbean sea, which will be conducted by Rear Admiral Evans.

No Scrap at Salt Lake.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 21.—The John Wille-Gus Ruhlin fight advertised to take place here next Tuesday night, will be prohibited by the county authorities, notwithstanding Mayor Morris has issued a permit for the fight. County Attorney Christensen stated that the contest as advertised would be a prize fight, and as such would be in violation of the law.

He so notified Sheriff Emery and the latter served notice on the promoters of the fight that arrests would be made if the men came into the ring.

Dr. Palmer Receives Sad News.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 21.—While busy at his official duty, Dr. George Palmer, in charge of Cairo's quarantine force, received the news of the death of his mother, Mrs. John Mays Palmer, which occurred at her home in Carlville.

CLOTHING TORN BY MOB.

Mr. Blackshire Convicted of Murder Has Close Call.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Gene Blackshire, convicted at the last term of the Calhoun county circuit court of implication in the killing of her husband, for which crime Louis Hendricks and Bud McCrosky are now serving life sentences was brought here last night en route to the penitentiary at Moundsville, to begin here three years' term.

A crowd of nearly 1,000 people met her at the depot and in the mad rush to get a glimpse of the woman her clothes were torn to shreds and she and her guard were nearly trampled under foot.

When lodged in jail she fell in a faint and was unconscious for several hours. It develops that since her conviction she has not been confined in jail, but has been allowed to be at liberty. Much indignation is felt at the alleged laxity of the officials. She still declares her innocence.

INCREASE IN DEPOSITS.

Fine Report on the Conditions of Our National Banks.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The controller of the currency reported on the condition of all of the national banks of the United States at the close of business August 25. The marvelous increase in individual deposits is an interesting feature of the report. Since September 6, 1904 approximately a year, the individual deposits have increased from $3,458,216,667.90 to $3,820,681,713.23, which is a gain of $362,464,045.33.

The total resources of the national banks have grown in the same time from $6,975,086,504.05 to $7,472,350,878.64, a gain of $497,292,374.59.

SMALL DAUGHTER

Witnessed the Second Marriage of Her Parents.

Middletown, Ohio, Sept. 21.—For the second time Miss Ella Thayer, of this city, and Earl W. Smith, a hotel clerk, of Steubenville, were united in marriage last night at the bride's home by Rev. W. E. Hammaker. After a year of happiness, during which a little daughter was born to them Mr. and Mrs. Smith became estranged four years ago and the wife got a divorce. A romantic reconciliation was effected some weeks ago and the old love was renewed, culminating in the second wedding last night, with their little four-year-old daughter as a witness to the ceremony.

The new chair carries with it the title of "Professor of the Science of the Art of Preaching," and it is expected that its first occupant will model his course of lectures in such a manner as shall seem best to himself, unhampered by either precedent or tradition. Mr. and Mrs. Atkins will go with Miss Elizabeth to Washington, where the young lady will enter Washington college.

Jeremiah Smith, who owns a laundry, sent to Texas for his parents, who were in poor circumstances. Smith came here from Long Branch yesterday to meet them and the mother died in her son's arms.

Suicided While Insane.

Findley, O., Sept. 21.—Barney Berman, the son of Simon Berman, a clothing merchant, committed suicide by shooting himself in his father's store, where he was taken by an officer after the young man had been adjudged insane. The officer was en route with his charge to the Toledo State hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Johns went to the Berman residence, on Lima street, and enticed the youth to walk with him in order to get him started on the Toledo journey. In the store the boy was allowed to go upstairs to get a handkerchief, as he said. Once out of the officer's sight young Berman fired a bullet through his heart. The mother is nearly frantic with grief.

Society Man Missing.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—Floyd Dinkgrave, a prominent society man, whose hat, vest and coat were found on the center span of Eads bridge, left the following verse in his room: "Strange—but the heart from trouble shrinks."

When skies are black and grim—That when a man is down he thinks That it is all up with him."

Dinkgrave was last seen at 12:30 a. m. Monday, when he left a party of friends with whom he had been playing poker. The game, which was for small stakes, took place in a private residence in the well West End. He was in a cheerful mood when he left. He had about $35, it is thought, with him.

BOYS GIVEN LIMIT.

Tried at Scottsville, Ky., For House-breaking and Arson.

Scottsville, Ky., Sept. 21.—Sheriff J. E. Bradley brought seven negro boys from Bowling Green, where they were taken on August 3 for safe keeping. There was a mob forming at the time they were taken away. On the night of the 28th of July, they broke into the large dry goods store of the Francis-Dixon company and took from it a few suits of clothes. They also tore open a cash drawer and got eight dollars in money. To hide the crime and the tearing up of the money drawer they set fire to the building and it was destroyed, together with the contents sustaining a loss of about $25,000. All the parties connected with the crime were indicted Monday and were tried yesterday. Walter Isbell and Will Hughes were fined on five counts for house-breaking and arson and given twenty-one years each. Lane Dunn, who first gave any evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin, was given one year.

Ed. Petty, Bennie Bowers, Clarence Isbell and Cleve Harston will be tried for being connected with the robbery and burning, and will plead guilty. They have several counts against them. Besides the indictments for arson and house-breaking these boys also are indicted for chicken stealing and will plead guilty, which will lengthen their sentences in the penitentiary.

In the last four years Scottsville has had destroyed over $200,000 worth of property of incendiary origin. The people were determined to stop it, and had not the juries in each case gave the offenders the highest penalty the negroes would have suffered at the hands of mob violence. As it is, they seem to be satisfied and there is no thought that a mob will attempt to interfere with the law in the case of these negroes.

Beautiful Girl Suicides.

Maysville, Ky., Sept. 21.—Miss Etta Rossman, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of John Rossman, ended her life by drowning in a pool of water. She arose at midnight and dressed herself and went to the pond near the house, and her body was found at daylight by a searching party, who had been on the hunt for her for several hours. She was twenty-one years old. She had been despondent recently over continued ill-health. Her death was a shock to the entire community.

MOSE FELTNER HAS MADE NEW CHARGES

Claims Judge B. F. French Hired Men to Assassinate Him.

He Was to Be Enticed Into a Card Game and Killed—Latest Sensation in Hargis Affairs.

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 21.—Mose Feltner, the nemesis of the Hargises in the Breathitt county assassination cases, went before the grand jury and, corroborated by other witnesses, made the startling statement that Judge B. F. French had hired men to assassinate him Monday night. Ruck Cottongame testified before the grand jury that French had hired him and Charles Daniels, of this city, to engage Feltner in a game of cards and assassinate him. Cottongame was to shoot him and Daniels was to swear that the shooting was done in self-defense.

Feltner made another sensational charge against French, in which he said that he and Sheriff McChord led the famous Perry county feudist into a trap, and that on September 4 French offered him $6,000 to leave the state and never return, paying him $200 in money to prove his good faith.

Sheriff McChord went before the grand jury and corroborated Feltner to the extent of saying that Feltner had told him of French's overtures and upon his advice had accepted the $200 and had turned it over to him. Sheriff McChord laid the money before the grand jury as evidence.

French was tried on the charge of contempt of court in the Clark circuit court only recently, and was fined $5,000 for enticing witnesses away from the $50,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. J. B. Marcum against the two Hargises, French and Sheriff Ed. Callahan, of Breathitt county, for the assassination of her husband two years ago in the Jackson court-house.

Judgment for damages was returned against Callahan and Judge James Hargis, but not against French nor Alex Hargis. Both sides appealed the case, and the appeal is now before the court of appeals.

Immediately after the trial the four defendants in the case were charged with contempt of court by inducing Feltner, Cottongame and Sam Fields to leave the jurisdiction of the court by the payment of several hundred dollars and to stay in Cincinnati until after the suit was decided. They did go to Ohio, but all of them returned and testified that they had been bribed to leave the court, the bribery being paid through Felix Feltner, who was also punished for his part in the proceedings.

French has already been convicted of the contempt charge and fined $5,000. The other three defendants are yet to be tried on the contempt charge, and the prosecution is confident that similar punishment will be dealt out to the Hargises and Callahan.

Mose Feltner has been a conspicuous figure in the famous Breathitt county assassination cases. He was indicted in Breathitt county for murder and sentenced to the penitentiary. J. B. Marcum, without financial recompense, felt sorry for him, and stepped in in his behalf, took an appeal and had the verdict of guilty reversed. Meanwhile the series of assassinations which have been laid at the Hargises' door began to develop.

Feltner has furnished damaging evidence against the Hargis factions in all the court proceedings and is considered the most dangerous man the Hargises have to deal with. Neither by intimidation nor bribery have they been able to swerve him from the oath he took over Marcum's grave, that "As long as I live I will protect his widow and children."

POLICE COURT

BELLIGERENTS SWEAR IN CONFLICT AND GET INTO TROUBLE.

False Swearing Warrants to Be Issued—Minor Cases On the Docket.

Will Riley and Ella Miller, colored, had a swearing match in police court this morning and in the end Judge Sanders declared the woman the victor and fined Riley $50 and costs for an attack she claims he made on her last night. A warrant for false swearing against one of the two will probably result from the testimony.

Riley was sleeping at the woman's house and went home last night to retire. He claims the woman began abusing him and finally attacked him and he held her off to prevent trouble. She wore a bruised eye and a badly bruised arm, but this came from "merely holding her off me."

Riley claimed that when the woman's little boy came in with a hatchet, he threw the lamp at him while the boy claims that Riley drew a pistol and chased him out into the yard.

After Judge Sanders assessed the fine of $50 against the man, he stated that this was one of the most remarkable cases on record because of the conflict of testimony, and if it is possible, he will find out who told the truth and issue a warrant against the other for false swearing.

Other cases were: George Diggs, colored, breach of peace, continued; John Bulger, white, drunk and disorderly, $10 and costs; Dock Foster, Reuben Whitlow, colored, breach of the peace, $10 and costs each; Albert Massey, colored, breach of the peace, $10 and costs; Mary McClure, colored, using insulting language towards another, $5 and costs; Jennie and Isaac Cartwright, colored, breach of the peace, dismissed as to the woman and the man fined $5 and costs; Tom Sledd, colored, detaining a woman against her will, continued.

Theatrical Notes

"The Rajah of Bhong," a musical comedy that has danced and rollicked its way into popular favor in all the theatrical centers, will be seen for the first time here on Monday night, at The Kentucky. The story of the comedy is an interesting one, and while it might not stand critical examination if it were the theme for a serious play, it possesses sufficient probability for an entertainment which is presented for laughing purposes only, and brilliant costumes, pretty girls, catchy music and songs without number please the eye and ear and combine to make a delightful performance. Especially tuneful is "The Tale of the Wasp" by Mr. Murray and the Peacock Ballet. The graceful maneuvers and striking manipulation of light effects during the singing of this song are a revelation in ensemble work. Another song that is enjoying an unusual degree of popularity is "The Flag of the U. S. A." by Miss Malatesta and the chorus of forty singing and dancing girls. The finale of the first act is a march movement and song that stirs the blood and sets the feet to keeping time. It never fails to receive thunders of applause.

Miss Mary Malatesta, leading prima donna in the "Rajah of Bhong," is a graduate of Signor Marchalchi, of Chicago, who was also instructor of Mrs. W. C. Schofield, of Paducah. While here Miss Malatesta will be a guest of Mrs. Scofield. Last season she was with "The Tenderfoot."

The Casino at Wallace park has been closed for the season on account of the cool weather and the Kentucky theater having opened.

COURT ENDS.

At Smithland—Prisoners Sentenced and Taken Away.

Smithland, Ky., Sept. 21.—Circuit court has just closed after being in session about three weeks. Many cases were tried and nine persons were sentenced to the penitentiary and reform school. Meanwhile the series of assassinations which have been laid at the Hargises' door began to develop.

Feltner has furnished damaging evidence against the Hargis factions in all the court proceedings and is considered the most dangerous man the Hargises have to deal with. Neither by intimidation nor bribery have they been able to swerve him from the oath he took over Marcum's grave, that "As long as I live I will protect his widow and children."

POLICE COURT

BELLIGERENTS SWEAR IN CONFLICT AND GET INTO TROUBLE.

False Swearing Warrants to Be Issued—Minor Cases On the Docket.

Will Riley and Ella Miller, colored, had a swearing match in police court this morning and in the end Judge Sanders declared the woman the victor and fined Riley $50 and costs for an attack she claims he made on her last night. A warrant for false swearing against one of the two will probably result from the testimony.

Riley was sleeping at the woman's house and went home last night in a rage. He claims the woman began abusing him and finally attacked him and he held her off to prevent trouble. She wore a bruised eye and a badly bruised arm, but this came from "merely holding her off me."

Riley claimed that when the woman's little boy came in with a hatchet, he threw the lamp at him while the boy claims that Riley drew a pistol and chased him out into the yard. After Judge Sanders assessed the fine of $50 against the man, he stated that this was one of the most remarkable cases on record because of the conflict of testimony, and if it is possible, he will find out who told the truth and issue a warrant against the other for false swearing.

Other cases were: George Diggs, colored, breach of peace, continued; John Bulger, white, drunk and disorderly, $10 and costs; Dock Foster, Reuben Whitlow, colored, breach of the peace, $10 and costs each; Albert Massey, colored, breach of the peace $10 and costs; Mary McClure, colored, using insulting language towards another, $5 and costs; Jennie and Isaac Cartwright, colored, breach of the peace, dismissed as to the woman and the man fined $5 and costs; Tom Sladd, colored, detaining a woman against her will, continued.

Theatrical Notes

"The Rajah of Bhong," a musical comedy that has danced and rollicked its way into popular favor in all the theatrical centers, will be seen for the first time here on Monday night, at The Kentucky. The story of the comedy is an interesting one, and while it might not stand critical examination if it were the theme for a serious play, it possesses sufficient probability for an entertainment which is presented for laughing purposes only, and brilliant costumes, pretty girls, catchy music and songs without number please the eye and ear and combine to make a delightful performance. Especially tuneful is "The Tale of the Wasp" by Mr. Murray and the Peacock Ballet. The graceful maneuvers and striking manipulation of light effects during the singing of this song are a revelation in ensemble work. Another song that is enjoying an unusual degree of popularity is "The Flag of the U. S. A." by Miss Malatesta and the chorus of forty singing and dancing girls. The finale of the first act is a march movement and song that stirs the blood and sets the feet to keeping time. It never fails to receive thunders of applause.

Miss Mary Malatesta, leading prima donna in the "Rajah of Bhong," is a graduate of Signor Marchalchi, of Chicago, who was also instructor of Mrs. W. C. Schofield, of Paducah. While here Miss Malatesta will be a guest of Mrs. Schofield. Last season she was with "The Tenderfoot."

The Casino at Wallace park has been closed for the season on account of the cool weather and the Kentucky theater having opened.

Dailey Thought.

Guilt was never a rational thing; it distorts all the faculties of the human mind, it perverts them, it leaves a man no longer in the free use of his reason, it puts him into confusion.—Burke.

THE DUTY TO VOTE.

There is at present a widespread discussion of the "Christian duty of voting," says the Globe Democrat. It appears to be a general admission that the class of voters most negligent of this duty are those called Christians in the sense of holding a church membership. In all of the cities of this country where this question has had intelligent discussion, there is agreement in the opinion that the men of the churches constitute the bulk of those who fail to appear at the polls on election days. Why this is true nobody pretends to say, but that it is true appears to be conceded. That it is true in St. Louis will be admitted by everyone at all conversant with political conditions here. It has been true for years. Only at the presidential election of 1896, when the burning issue was one of such vital consequence and the struggle was so fierce, that even sluggards were aroused to animation and activity, has what might fairly be termed "a full vote" been brought out here. In that year the total vote polled in St. Louis exceeded 117,000, which has never since been equaled. Yet there has never been suspicion of fraud entertained or expressed for that election was held under the fairest election law under which the city has ever voted, adopted by a Democratic senate and a Republican house of the Missouri assembly, and signed by William J. Stone as governor.

What has been true of St. Louis has been even more markedly true of Philadelphia, and true in less degree of New York, Chicago, Boston and other great centers of population. That the evil elements in municipal politics have flourished as the result of better elements neglecting their public duties is now a well-recognized fact, which accounts for the prevailing comment and the appeal to "Christian citizenship." One false note is struck in nearly all of the expressions brought out by the discussion of the topic. Nearly all of the commentators cry out against party organization as a source of the evil, when, as a matter of fact, the laxity of "Christian citizenship" is in spite of rather than because of, party organization. There is never an election preceding which the "Christian citizenship" of cities is not reminded of its duty and urged to its performance. What is of more importance, there is never a primary of either of the great parties of which "Christian citizenship" is not advised by compulsory legal notification, and afterward by precinct canvassers, and the personal and printed appeals directed straight at the "Christian citizen" by candidates for nominations. These things are well understood by men with a practical knowledge of conditions, and who know also that "Christian citizenship" could control every nomination if it would heed these exhortations to duty.

What would it avail to abolish or disregard party organization? There would be a swarm of candidates, among whom those supported by the well-organized and compact forces of the bosses would be the ones chosen. They might be minority office holders, but they would be office holders still, fitted to do the dirty work of their masters. "Christian citizenship," if it will, can control the nominations of both parties, selecting candidates of such merit and equipment that, on whatever side the balance might fall, results could not be disastrous or disgraceful. That is the only solution of the problem, and it rests wholly with "Christian citizenship" as to whether it shall be applied.

Col. J. R. Lemon, of the Mayfield Messenger has developed into a political speaker. His initial appearance was at Water Valley a day or two ago, when Senator George asked the people to vote for the constitutional amendment to do away with the secret ballot. Col. Lemon at the conclusion of the speech said he was an untried democrat, wanted no office, but did want the democrats to vote against the proposed constitutional amendment. The Mayfield Messenger says of Col. Lemon's speech: "He said that human liberty was the greatest privilege guaranteed to the American people by our state and national constitution, and that every voter should be permitted to go and vote his sentiments without being molested or made afraid by the money king, the thugs and election bullies. After the speaking was over, it was easy to learn that the great majority of people there were opposed to this amendment."

Col. Urey Woodson, secretary of the national democratic committee, editor, publisher and politician, says that the last election was bought. As the republicans carried about everything in sight, they evidently did a wholesale job. Such an eminent authority as Col. Woodson, however, should be more explicit. Who was bought? The democrats? How much was paid for the moribund party, and if the republicans bought it, what do they propose to do with it? As a matter of fact, it is a serious slam on their party for the democrats to claim the election was "bought," absurd as is such a claim.

The State Fair edition of the Lexington Herald is a paragon of the typographical art, and a credit to the owners, the editors, the city of Lexington and the state of Kentucky. This is not putting it too strong, as those who have seen a copy well know. Mr. Desha Brinkridge, the publisher, and his staff have filled sixty pages with attractive, interesting and instructive information about Lexington, its wonderful growth and improvement, its institutions, enterprises and residences, and its prospects. The Herald is always good and in this instance it has surpassed itself.

The state fair is a good thing in the locality in which it is held—or for the whole state, for that matter,—when kept free from graft. Judgments have just been filed at Louisville in favor of forty-three newspapers for various amounts for advertising the state fair held in 1902 at Owensboro. It was charged at the time that the fair was a financial failure because of the graft incident to its management, and it was evidently presumed that the newspapers were willing to contribute their space, time and money, and say nothing, but they weren't.

Uncle Sam is a good bookkeeper. The count of notes, bonds, cash and other securities in the federal treasury preliminary to a transfer of the office of treasurer, agreed to a cent with the treasury books.

If the city has to have outside attorneys to look after its lawsuits, why not let these attorneys take the cases on contingent fees?

McCall Says They "Worried Him to Death" for Money.

In Their Campaign Last Fall But He Had Nothing for the Parker Crowd.

JUDGE PARKER'S HYPOCRISY

New York, Sept. 21.—Political contributions of the New York Life Insurance company and connection of Andrew A. Hamilton, of Albany, with the hearing before the legislative insurance investigation turned yesterday.

President McCall of the New York Life Insurance company, was the chief witness, and for several hours was subjected to a fire of questions by Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the committee, concerning the money paid for political purposes.

The climax was reached when McCall declared that the soliciting of funds for campaign purposes was not confined to the Republican party in the campaign of 1904, and announced:

"My life was made weary by Democratic candidates chasing me for money in that campaign. Some of the very men who today are being interviewed in the papers and denouncing the men who contribute to campaigns were crossing my path every step I took, looking for money."

"One of the candidates, himself, Parker, if he would show up his books when he was chairman of the Democratic state committee, it would give you a fit."

"He never rejected a dollar in the world. He would take every dollar that was paid to him."

Judge Parker was chairman of the Democratic state executive committee in 1885.

McCall's statement was greeted with wild cheering, which continued until a threat was made to clear the room of listeners if the crowd did not restrain itself.

With great care the account of Andrew A. Hamilton with the company was analyzed by Hughes, who asked McCall about every item, and made it clear that a search was being made for political contributions.

McCall stoutly maintained that he had given Hamilton no money to be used in influencing the legislation at Albany, but the admission was "obtained" from McCall that Hamilton's expenses at Albany were paid from the company's funds and that his accounts were not submitted to audit.

It was shown $235,000 has been paid Hamilton with only a verbal accounting to McCall and that at present Hamilton owes the company $60,000 but McCall said he felt sure that Hamilton, who is now in Europe, will repay the sum upon the company's demand.

Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for president in 1904, last night gave the Associated Press a statement concerning McCall's testimony relative to soliciting of funds from the New York Life Insurance company by Democrats in 1904. In this statement Parker said:

"It is evident that McCall was laboring under a great excitement in making his reply, for it is very incoherent. But if his answer is intended to convey the impression that in the campaign of 1904, I either directly or indirectly, solicited from him or his corporation, or any other corporation, any money or valuable thing, his statement is absolutely false."

"On the contrary, I repeat now what I said before the election, that I expressly notified and directed the chairman of the executive committee of the national committee that no money should be received from corporations."

William F. Sheehan's attention was called to the testimony of McCall, and he said:

"I was chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee. There was not a single man connected with Democratic national campaign that solicited a dollar from McCall. If any such person made any such solicitation McCall should name him."

President McCall, referring to his testimony before the legislative committee in relation to contributions to the Democratic party said last night:

"The meaning I intended to convey when I mentioned Judge Parker was this: Judge Parker, when a candidate for presidency last year did not personally ask me for campaign funds but friends of his did so repeatedly."

"Judge Parker, as chairman of the state Democratic committee several years ago, did, however, accept proffered contributions to the campaign fund."

A Kentuckian Who Has Had Yellow Fever Gives Description of Panama

Cynthiana, Ky., Sept. 21.—W. S.

Dale, of this city, who has been on the Isthmus of Panama for some months, writes a vivid and entertaining letter telling how he survived an attack of yellow fever. Mr. Dale says:

"I took the fever at Panama, came to Gorgona next morning and was sent to Colon hospital in the cage car. The railroad carries this car all the time for fever patients along the line. When you get to Colon the car is taken right to the hospital and you are sent to the yellow fever ward, and there you are put in a big cage to stay. The hospital is built out in the Caribbean Sea."

"I was in the cage when Mr. Moon of Massachusetts, died. He was superintendent of all painting on the zone. He lasted seven hours. My room mate only lasted five hours, and I thought my turn would come next; but I had made up my mind to fight for life so much the harder. The fourth day I heard one of the doctors say, 'He may last through the day.' There I lay for five hours with very little chance, although I was watched every minute. Finally I went to sleep and woke at 4 o'clock, in time to take my medicine. I felt better, but was burning up with fever. Just at this time Oscar Obelee, chief clerk of the carpenter department, died and was sent to the dead house."

EMBER DAYS.

Anniversary Commemorated by Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

Yesterday, Friday and Saturday of this week, are Ember days, which are observed in the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches.

The word "Ember" is from the Saxon "Ymbryne," which means a circuit of course, and indicates that these days follow the seasons in their natural revolution; they are observed in spring, summer, autumn and winter. They are the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday after the first Sunday in Lent, Whitsunday, the 14th of September and the 13th of December. During these weeks the bishops are engaged in examining those who offer themselves as candidates for the ministry; and on the following Sunday such as are approved are admitted into the Holy Order of Deacons or Priests, by the laying on of the bishop's hands.

At these times the members of the church are urged to make special prayers that the bishops may make a wise choice of fit men to serve in the ministry of the church and that the men who are ordained may be faithful to the most solemn vows taken by them at their ordination.

These days are fast days and the faithful of the churches observe them as such.

MANY PLEASED

With the Fine Performance Last Night—Moving Pictures a Winner.

"The World in Motion," attracted a large and appreciative audience at the Kentucky theatre last night, and the attraction made an immediate hit.

The moving pictures of scenes about Paducah and at the camp at Wallace park were particularly fine, as T. V. Stock, in his unsurpassed act, "La Protea." He has a feature that would be a winner in any of the big vaudeville houses of the metropolitan circuits.

The moving pictures are particularly clear and free from vibration, and faces are easily recognized. The Labor Day parade was great, as was the matinee crowd coming from the Kentucky on Labor Day.

The scenes from Camp Yeiser were cheered wildly, Col. Henry and the boys of the Third showing up well. The remainder of the entertainment was just as good as the pictures, and every act is a feature. Miss Lulu Konuta having one of the finest soprano voices heard in Paducah in some time.

The World in Motion will be here the remainder of the week, with a Saturday matinee. The program will be changed nightly, with the exception that the moving pictures of local scenes will be shown at every performance.

Mexico's Gigantic Pawnshop.

Mexico City, Mex., Sept. 21.—

The transactions of the national pawnshop in this city for the month of August involved money considerations aggregating nearly $900,000. It was not an unusually heavy month. The shop is conducted under the direct supervision of the federal government. It is patronized by all classes of people, but, of course, the principal business is done with the poor. During August there were 4,614 articles pawned, 36,428 redeemed and 5,206 sold by this institution. Almost every conceivable kind of article finds its way to the national pawnshop. It is one of the chief objects of interest in the city, and during the tourist season it is visited by many Americans, who are liberal patrons in the matter of buying unredeemed articles.

Boston, Sept. 21.—The officers of the armored cruiser Colorado, which put in here yesterday for coal, reported that in the recent trials over the new one-mile course near Rock land, Me., the warship attained the fastest speed ever made by an American warship on a trial cruise when manned by a naval crew.

The cruiser made 22.22 knots an hour in a four-hour run to sea on Saturday, which is within .04 of the speed she made on her trial trip. On the Rockland test the ship carried her heavy armament, which was not on board during her trial trip, and she was run without a full complement of force.

A CONTINUANCE IN THE LOVING CASE

The Trial is Set for Seventh Day of December Term.

The Defendant is in Custody of the Jailer, But Will Be Guarded in Meantime.

MOTION FOR BAIL TOMORROW.

The case against H. H. Loving, charged with the wilful murder of H. A. Rose on August 3, was this morning in circuit court continued until the seventh day of the December term on account of the absence of witnesses.

The indictment was brought in yesterday afternoon. There were several witnesses important to the commonwealth who were not present and the case had to go over. The defendant had been out on $10,000 bond. He was today placed in the custody of Jailer Fayette Jones, and Judge Reed stated that he would tomorrow morning hear a motion for bail for the defendant. In the meantime the defendant will be guarded. There were a great many persons present when the case was called this morning, the court room being packed.

There was never much prospect of the case going to trial at this term of court. The grand jury seems to have delayed bringing the indictment as long as possible, and a number of important witnesses on both sides were absent. Mr. A. B. Smith, the lumberman, for the commonwealth, having been absent for three weeks, and not even before the grand jury. It is generally believed that bail will be allowed the defendant tomorrow.

Augustus Green, colored, was given one year in the penitentiary for stealing $55 from Alice Payne.

C. Thomas was given 60 days in the county jail for petty larceny. She stole a $15 pistol from M. B. Robinson.

The indictment, because of a defect, was dismissed in the case of John Griffin for false swearing, and resubmitted to the grand jury.

Alex Fitzgerald, alias Fitzpatrick, colored, was yesterday acquitted of the charge of stealing a watch from R. A. Adams, but this afternoon is again on trial for the theft of a watch from J. R. Cross. Fitzgerald claims that he swapped a silver watch and $6 to boot for the Cross watch. The argument was being made at press time.

With the conclusion of the Fitzgerald case this afternoon, the last case set for this term of criminal circuit court will have been finished, and unless the grand jury brings in indictments which will find the defendants in jail, court will close with today, except the hearing of the motion for bail in the Loving murder case tomorrow.

Judge Reed has rushed his court, as he always does, and where formerly persons indicted during the present term would not secure a trial before the next term, most all indicted are now tried without delay.

Civil Docket.

Four judgments for divorce were filed in circuit court this morning as follows:

Mrs. Lella Wade Lewis was granted a divorce from her husband, D. I. Lewis. The suit was brought last spring and both are prominent residents of the city.

In the case of Blanche Tittsworth against Charley Tittsworth, and Florence Means against Charley Means and Thomas against Bettie Young judgment for divorce were filed.

A judgment for distribution was filed in the case of Henry Temple, Jr., against G. B. Burrow.

In the case of the T. A. Snider Preserve Co., against the O. L. Gregory Vinegar Co., a judgment for $590 was filed.

A judgment for divorce was filed in the case of William Skelton against Rosa Skelton.

Criminal Docket.

In four cases against the Standard Oil Co., charged with conducting an oil depot without a license, the defense waived the right of a jury and the cases were tried by Judge Reed who decided in favor of the defendant.

Edward Pankey, white, who cut Ed. Smith, white, on Labor Day, was allowed to plead guilty to cutting in sudden heat and passion, and was fined $50 and costs. He was charged with malicious cutting with intent to kill.

The grand jury this morning returned sixteen indictments, none of which was made public, the defendants not being before the court.

Suit to Settle Estate.

Mr. F. G. Rudolph, administrator of the estate of the late H. A. Rose, has filed suit in circuit court against Ione T. Rose and others to wind up the estate. About $27,000 in insurance has been collected and there is another policy of $10,000 being held by the Western National bank, at Louisville. The suit is a friendly action to settle the estate.

Suit on Note.

The Mechanics' and Farmers' bank has filed suit against James Vioholes for $950 on a note and asks that the property in the confectionary at 406 Broadway, recently closed by attachment, be sold as it is mortgaged to the bank. The place was closed recently on a distress warrant for $75 rent.

Case Affirmed.

The court of appeals at Frankfort yesterday affirmed the case of Lena Maud Flint against the Illinois Central, from the McCracken court. The girl sued on account of injuries received at Dawson Springs at the railroad picnic about four years ago, and lost, and the verdict is now affirmed.

ALBERS CONVICTED

But Sentence Has Not Been Passed On the American.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The state department was informed that the Nicaraguan court, in session at Ocatel, Province of Segovia, has convicted William S. Albers, the American resident agent at Jalapa of the Port Limon company, on the charge of resisting legal process and insulting President Zelaya. Sentence has not yet been imposed, however.

Mr. Albers is said to be in free communication with the American legation at Managua, and has the advice of counsel. So far as is known to the state department, Mr. Lee, former consul-general at Panama, has not yet started for Ocatel, and it is said that the expected advices from Minister Merry, which will probably determine whether or not Mr. Merry should proceed are not yet at hand.

While it is believed here that Mr. Albers may have been indiscreet in forcibly resisting the Nicaraguan officials, a diplomatic inquiry will be made into the entry upon his premises of these officers, to test the correctness of his claim that the intrusion was unwarranted and illegal.

Died of Fever.

James Marable, a prominent colored resident of the city, aged 38 of 512 South Eighth street, died this morning at 4 o'clock at his home, of presumably congestion following malarial fever. He was taken ill fifteen days ago with a chill and grew gradually worse until death came. He leaves a wife and six children and the funeral will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Burk's Chapel, at Seventh and Ohio streets.

Louisville Grain Rate Case.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The concluding hearing of the Louisville grain rate case was begun today by the Interstate Commerce Commission, C. B. Compton, traffic manager of the Louisville & Nashville railway, continuing the testimony begun in the hearing several weeks ago at Louisville. Hearings have been held at Birmingham, Ala., Louisville and St. Louis, and several thousand pages of testimony have been taken.

Expects Hearing October 2.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—District Attorney Morrison says he will endeavor to have the cases of the packers under indictment for alleged violations of the anti-trust law, brought to a full hearing October 2. He hopes to have the dilatory tactics thrown out of court by that time.

Masonic Notice.

Plain City lodge, No. 449, F. & A. M., will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. to attend the funeral of our late brother, Jno. H. Yates.

GEO. O. INGRAM, Master.

—Will White, colored, was arrested by Officers Beadles and Rogers this afternoon for the alleged stealing of some tools from Mr. Ed Eaker last Monday and selling them.

Colorado

At Her Best

In late summer Colorado is at her best. The green of the verdure on mountain and meadow is slowly turning to crimson and gold. Afar looms a peak whose snow-capped summit is enshrouded in autumnal haze. The air is laden with the spice of mountain pines and fir trees.

Colorado is surely the best place to go for the autumn vacation.

SEWER EXTENSION IS VERY UNLIKELY

City Engineer Has No Time to Draw the Plan This Fall.

Board of Works Will Advise Postponement—Regular Meeting Yesterday.

MINOR MATTERS DISCUSSED.

The board of public works at its regular meeting last night practically decided that it is inadvisable to attempt an extension of the sanitary sewerage this year, and will so recommend in a communication to the board of aldermen this evening. The city engineer was instructed a short time ago to prepare plans for a new sewer district from Ninth to Fort-tain avenue, and Kentucky to Tri-ble streets. Engineer Washington reported last night that there is so much work on hand in his office that he can't possibly prepare the plans at present. The board of works, while ordering, however, if the legislative board insists, to attempt to employ a sanitary engineer to go ahead with the work.

The board last night ordered that closets and toilet rooms be placed in the city hall annex, the brick building adjoining the city hall.

Mr. W. E. Cochran was granted permission to construct a temporary sidewalk in front of his flat at Ninth and Monroe streets, on condition that it be taken up when the streets and sidewalks in that vicinity are reconstructed.

Street Inspector Alonso Elliott was instructed to take the duty that is removed from streets and sidewalks by the chalingang, and fill up a lot near the Fourth and Elizabeth street fire station.

The board ordered that the Southern Bitulithic company be notified that the legislative board had ordered the reconstruction of Kentucky and Jefferson streets to proceed.

City Solicitor Campbell reported that he thought it the duty of the city to fill up the pond at the Emery property off Bradshaw creek. The owners of the property are willing to give it to the city if the latter will fill it.

Supt. Kebbler, of the city light plant, was authorized to have toilets placed in the building, and to make connection to carry off the exhaust steam and water.

City Engineer L. A. Washington was instructed to ascertain how much of Hon. Charles K. Wheeler's property will be used if Jackson street is extended from Nineteenth to Twenty-first street.

The street inspector was authorized to buy another horse and harness for use in the street department. The inspector was also notified to repair the bridges over Island creek at Fourth and Bridge streets.

WARREN & WARREN.

TEN YEARS' WORK TO END IN PADUCAH

Dr. A. S. Orne and Wife Claim to Have Visited Every City.

Make Inspections of Lockups, Jails and Poor Farms—Are Doing
Humanity's Work.

CAME HERE IN A SKIFF

Dr. A. S. Orne and wife, who say they have been in every city in the United States inspecting county poor farms and city and county jails, arrived in Paducah last night from Nashville in a skiff and will end their work of inspection in Paducah, this being the last city to inspect.

"It has taken us ten years to visit all the cities in the United States, but we are interested in the work and notwithstanding the many hardships, thoroughly enjoy our work," Dr. Orne said. His chief work is in saving the juvenile court law and in making this thorough inspection to bear out my contentions and ideas in the establishment of this law. I find in the past ten years from personal knowledge and research that the criminals in the country have increased 75 per cent while the population has increased but 22 per cent. I find that most of the criminals, we might say, 99 per cent, are persons who have no homes and who are not put to work, given some honest vocation to occupy themselves with while young.

"Now I find the city hall a very nicely conducted institution and will today visit the county jail and county poor farm. This I do for the purpose of preparing an intelligent report on the conditions. When I have all my data ready, I hope to put my statistics in the hands of the world at large and receive the support of every one in the work I am carrying on."

Dr. Orne and wife preach from the streets and will be in Paducah several weeks. His chief clerk is in saving children from the life of a criminal. He has placed many hundreds of homeless children in some good industrial school, and will attempt to work along this line in Paducah.

ARRESTED IN ST. LOUIS.

Man Wanted Here For Passing Worth- less Checks, in the Tolls There.

A man supposed to be M. J. Menafee is under arrest at St. Louis and is being held for the Paducah authorities on a charge of passing a worthless check on E. Rehkopf about a month ago.

It is alleged that Menafee was formerly connected with a New Roads La., house and often bought goods here from the Rehkopf firm. When he came recently he appeared to be with his old house, bought $800 worth of goods, and incidentally had Mr. Rehkopf cash a $100 check. After he left it was ascertained that he was not with the house, and that the $100 check was worthless.

About that time the authorities here ascertained that he was also wanted in Chattanooga, Tenn., and began searching for him. He was yesterday located in St. Louis and arrested. Detective WILL Baker leaves today to bring him back.

THE DUTY OF ALL CHRISTIANS
WHEN IT COMES TO VOTING

(Collier's Weekly).

Is there such a thing as Christian citizenship? No, but it could be created. The process would be quite simple, and not productive of hardship to any one. It will be conceded that every man's first duty is to God; it will also be conceded, and with strong emphasis, that a Christian's first duty is to God. It then follows, as a matter of course, that it is his duty to carry his Christian code of morals to the polls and vote them.

Whenever he shall do that, he will not find himself voting for an unclean man, a dishonest man. Whenever a Christian votes, he votes against God or for Him, and he knows this quite well. God is an issue in every election; He is a candidate in the person of every clean nominee on every ticket; His purity and His approval are there, to be voted for or voted against, and no fealty to party can absolve His servant from his higher and more exacting fealty to Him; He takes precedence of party, duty to Him is above every claim of party.

Christians and the Ballot.

If Christians should vote their duty to God at the polls, they would carry every election, and do it with ease. They would elect every clean candidate in the United States, and defeat every soiled one. Their prodigious power would be quickly realized and recognized, and afterward there would be no unclean candidates upon any ticket, and graft would cease. No church organization can be found in the country that would elect men of foul character to be its shepherd, its treasurer, and superintendent of its Sunday-school. It would be revolted at the idea; it would consider such an election an insult to God. Yet every Christian congregation in the country elects foul men to public office, while quite aware that this also is an open and deliberate insult to God, who cannot approve and does not approve the placing of the liberties and the well-being of His children in the hands of infamous men. It is the Christian congregations that are responsible for the filling of our public offices with criminals, for the reason that they could prevent it if they chose to do it. They could prevent it without organizing a league, without framing a platform, without making any speeches or passing any resolutions—in a word, without concert of any kind. They could accomplish it by each individual resolving to vote for God at the polls—that is to say, vote for the candidate whom God would approve. Can a man imagine such a thing as God being a republican or a democrat, and voting for a criminal or a blackguard merely because party loyalty required it? Then can we imagine a man can improve upon God's attitude in this matter, and by help of professional politicians invent a better policy. God has no politics but cleanliness and honesty, and it is good enough for men.

A man's second duty is to his family. There was a time when a clergyman's duty to his family required him to be his congregation's political slave, and vote his congregation's ticket in order to safeguard the food and shelter of his wife and children. But that time has gone by. We have the secret ballot now, and a clergyman can vote for God. He can also plead with his congregation to do the like.

Perhaps, we cannot be sure. The congregation would probably inquire whom he was going to vote for; and if he stood upon his manhood and answered that they had no Christian right (which is the same as saying no moral right, and, of course, no legal right) to ask the question, it is conceivable—not to say certain—that they would dismiss him, and be much offended at his proposing to be a man as well as a clergyman.

Still, there are clergymen who are so situated as to be able to make the experiment. It would be worth while to try it. If the Christians of America could be persuaded to vote, God and a clean ticket, it would bring about a moral revolution that would be incalculably beneficent. It would save the country—a country whose Christians have betrayed it and are destroying it.

The Christians of Connecticut sent Bulkeley to the senate. They sent to the Legislature the men who elected him. These two crimes they could have prevented; they did not do it, and upon them rest the shame and the responsibility. Only one clergyman remembered his Christian morals and his duty to God, and stood bravely by both. Mr. Smythe is probably an outcast now, but such a man as that is likely to possess the treasure of a family that can endure it with him, and be proud to do it. I kiss the hem of his garment.

Four years ago Greater New York had two tickets in the field; one clean, the other dirty, with a single exception; an unspeakable ticket with that lonely exception. One-half of the Christians voted for that foul ticket and against God and the Christian code of morals, putting loyalty to party above loyalty to God and honorable citizenship, and they came within a fraction of electing it; whereas, if they had stood by their professed morals they would have buried it out of sight. Christianity was on trial then, it is on trial now. And nothing important is on trial except Christianity.

Another Test to Come.

It was on trial in Philadelphia, and failed; in Pennsylvania, and failed; in Rhode Island, and failed; in Connecticut, and failed; in New York, and failed; in Delaware, and failed; in every town and county and state, and was recreant to its trust; it has offensively busied itself with the small matters of charity and benevolence, and has looked on, indifferent while its country was sinking lower and lower in repute and drifting further and further toward moral destruction. It is the one force that can save, and it sits with folded hands. In Greater New York it will presently have an opportunity to elect or defeat some straight, clean, honest men, of the sterling Jerome stamp, and some of the Tammany kind. The Christian vote—and the Christian vote alone—will decide the contest. It, and it alone, is master of the situation, and lord of the result.

A man's second duty is to his family. There was a time when a clergyman's duty to his family required him to be his congregation's political slave, and vote his congregation's ticket in order to safeguard the food

FAVORABLE WEATHER.

Crop Bulletin for Week Says Conditions Were Beneficial to the Farmers.

According to the weekly bulletin issued by the weather bureau the week was decidedly favorable for farmers. With the exception that fogs slightly interfered with curing of tobacco, all kinds of farm work progressed unusually well. The official report is as follows:

Corn—Corn has mostly matured and much is safe from frost and fodder-pulling in progress, while some has been cut. The reports on yield continue excellent.

Tobacco—Tobacco is about two-thirds cut and housed, while cutting is completed in some sections. While acreage and yield are reported slightly lower than usual, the quality is generally satisfactory, and in some cases most excellent.

Peas, millet, hemp, and sorghum are excellent; the millet and hemp are mostly cut, peas saved and sorghum now being cut for silage or syrup.

Fruit reports are generally unfavorable, pears being the best; while winter apples are generally reported from light to a failure. Dropping continues and nearly all is of poor quality.

Plowing is progressing; some have finished and begun sowing wheat, rye and winter oats; sowing will be general next week.

MORE EVIDENCE.

That There Is Something in the Tennessee Central—L. C. Deal.

More evidence that there is something doing in the matter of a deal of some kind between the Illinois Central and the Southern and the Tennessee Central railroads comes to light by the announcement that the first named road has issued circulars to its representatives on the Ohio river and north of that, directing that shipments from that section be routed after January 1 through Hopkinsville and over the present Tennessee Central to Nashville. It is announced that a through service will be running by that time from St. Louis to Nashville for freight by this route. It is also understood that a schedule is being arranged for putting on a through passenger train over the same tracks.—Nashville Banner.

TRUE CAUSE OF THE SUFFERING

POORLY COOKED FOOD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PLAGUE OF PARASITES.

RARE MEAT AN ENEMY.

Payne Explains the Dangers That Lurk in the Diet of the Epicure.

Much interest is being aroused in this city by Payne's unusual statement that parasites are the foundation for a great deal of chronic stomach trouble. Since making this statement Payne prophesies that within the next few days many cases of this character will come to light. Payne was seen at his hotel last evening and was asked to tell how these parasites found their way into the human system. He said: "People may become afflicted with one of these parasites only through eating uncooked food of different kinds, but in nearly every case the presence of a tape worm in the human system is due to eating raw or very rare meat."

RARE MEAT IS DANGEROUS.

"All meat of this character is dangerous for unless it is thoroughly cooked it may contain the eggs from which these parasites come, and unless it is cooked sufficiently to kill this egg, it is taken into the stomach, where it immediately hatches and grows at an astonishing rate. It travels from the stomach to the intestines and remains there, growing larger each day, until it has reached enormous proportions. Every particle is preyed upon by the creature, so that the nourishment which should go to build bone, blood and sinew in the individual has most of the life-giving properties which it possesses, absorbed by the parasites. In consequence the entire system of the human being so afflicted becomes broken down, the blood becomes impure, the stomach is thrown out of order, the nerves are affected and even the mind loses its wonted keenness and becomes dull and sluggish. Mr. Le Roy Wade, a well known attorney and several times a member of the state legislature from Mt. Vernon, Ind., made this statement to me: "I was losing my memory, also my eyesight, but after passing a parasite of such a length that I was ashamed to show it, I was relieved of all my troubles." Continuing, Payne said: "Contrary to general belief, the appetite is not greatly increased; it only becomes irregular, so that at times the mere sight of food will nauseate and at others the individual eats ravenously."

INDICATIONS OF TROUBLE.

"One of the surest indications of this trouble is a general feeling of lassitude, a disinclination of all effort and extreme nervousness. The individual almost invariably thinks himself to be suffering from many ills, and he tries first one thing and then another, hoping to rid himself of an imaginary disease. "As I have before stated, I have found these parasites to be very common and sooner than take the chance of having one of these terrible things in my system and subjecting myself to untold misery, I see that every particle of meat that I eat is thoroughly cooked."

If Payne is right about this, and the facts seem to indicate that he is, the epicures who like their steaks, chops, etc., with just the least bit of brown on the outside and rare all the rest of the way through had better think less of their palates and more of their health. It looks as though the rich, rare steaks that appear so tempting and fairly make the month water will have to go and the raw Hamburger sandwich will be a thing of the past.

Payne can be seen at Smith & Nagel's, Fourth and Broadway, daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

LIBRARY BOARD

Will Meet Tonight to Transact Business.

The Carnegie library board will meet tonight for the purpose of selecting a book list and allowing accounts, also possibly to elect a janitor.

President Bagby stated this morning that the book list had been carefully made and would amount to about $1,500. In speaking of the books now in the institution, President Bagby stated that not a book was neglected and that all were pretty generally read. There have been a great many calls of late for books treating on municipal government and in the list to be submitted are eight are several authorities on municipalities and their government. It seems that since Paducah went into the second class and so many complications arose, the interest of the general public has been aroused and many calls for the books treating on his subject resulted.
